George Smith, Holophane/Acuity Brands

George’s profession calls him to be knowledgeable in the art of lighting and to be a consultant to the lighting professionals in our area. He is always ready to educate and advance designers’ knowledge about the ever changing science of lighting.

His many years of devoted service as Treasurer for the IES Kansas City chapter further demonstrates his investment and desire to make the built environment better. He donates his time and energy at every board meeting and at nearly every IESKC chapter event, faithfully managing the chapter’s finances.

Samira Kiger, Mercer-Zimmerman

Samira is a genuine person whose clients are truly lucky to have such an upbeat positive person to work with. She is constantly challenging herself to learn more about lighting products, controls and energy codes to help her specifiers with their day-to-day needs and those special projects. Samira, will always go the extra mile to help her clients.

Samira’s service to IESKC started through her initial role as Emerging Professionals co-chair and later as Vice President. She has donated much time toward the advancement of lighting education for young professionals as well as the facilitation of events for all members of our chapter through monthly educational programming and other annual events.
